GENERAL MEETING - Who Inspires You? / Photographing Artwork

"Circles in a Circle" by Wassily Kandinsky

Is there an artist, historical or contemporary; or a friend, whose work you love, and maybe has inspired you in your own artistic endeavors? Bring images of their artwork (book, postcard, printout, etc.) to share. Do you have artwork of your own that has been influenced by another artist? Bring these or any other pieces you're working on to share too!

If you have specific artwork that you want photographed for the website, please bring it to the meeting and Kelly will be happy to take pictures!

Messages From the Board...CALL FOR ART- DeYoung Museum

Alice Neel, the subject of our latest de Young retrospective, Alice Neel: People Come First, painted radically honest depictions of the diverse, resilient, and passionate people she encountered. She called these paintings "pictures of people."

Share your own creative "pictures of people" with us throughout the run of the exhibition, and we'll share them with our community online and on-site at the de Young!* We welcome submissions from all ages and in any medium, including drawings, paintings, photographs, and more.

Moraga Art Gallery’s “Singularities”

“The Rite of Spring” by Linh Kang

This show will be on display through April 10th. The title “Singularities,” is derived from the unique visions of the two featured member artists: Orinda’s Linh Kang and Walnut Creek’s Susan Erickson.

Using acrylics and oils overlaid with glossy resin, Linh Kang, renders larger-than-life emotionally-charged portraits of Southeast Asians. The portraits are an homage to her Asian heritage and her desire to explain the unexplainable through myths, dreams, and divine beliefs.

Susan Erickson uses memorabilia added to mixed media to create her detailed paintings which often carry a message designed to elicit an emotional response.
