General Meeting —
A Discussion of art, and some tips and techniques

Our very own LJ~EBAG president... Marylynne Nicholson, will be presenting her work this month. Not only an artist, but an art instructor! She will share with us what she loves to paint along with tips and techniques she's learned along the way!

Reflecting a moment or an era, a part of everyday life or an exceptional memory. It can be about people at work, home, or play; tasks made interesting, or more rare, notable moments.

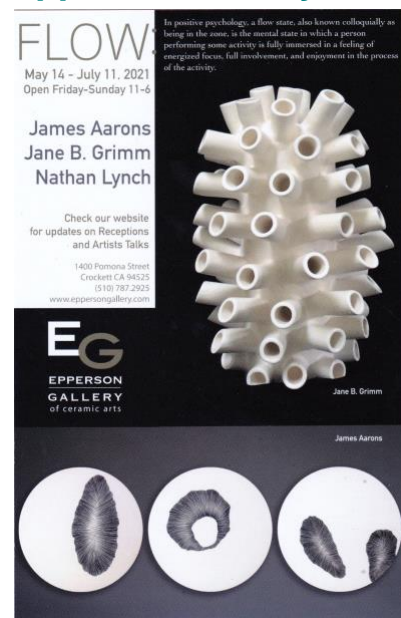

The concept of everyday life and adapting to the new normal has taken on an especially poignant meaning during the COVID-19 crisis.

Artist Reception - Saturday, May 15th, 2:00-4:00pm
