Puppies in Sicily, by Valerie Zito

This month's meeting will feature YOUR art.

We will meet in person at St.
Mark's, so bring 1-3 pieces of your work to show and talk about what inspired you to create it.

It's so enjoyable to get to know everyone a little better when we see their work.

Invite a friend to join us as we enjoy each other's art and talk about what inspires us to create!

REMEMBER - We will be meeting in person at:

Other Art Groups and Galleries

aRt Cottage - On The Threshold of Desert Dreams - 9/7-10/29

Martin Biro and Jerry Dunbar are featured in a duo exhibit for September and October at the aRt Cottage. But how can these guys be twins if they are from a different mother? What's going on here?

Martin and Jerry have known each other for years and have been best friends for a very long time. They have much in common and enjoy their "brotherhood." Jerry's family originates from Ysleta Del Sur Pueblo, southeast of El Paso, Texas and he currently resides in Santa Fe, New Mexico. Martin is from Budapest, Hungary and currently resides in Pleasant Hill, California. Although they live miles apart, they see each other often and reconnect through making art, each in his own way. Jerry the potter and Martin the painter are twin brothers of different mothers.

Pottery Demo - Thursday, September 9th, 7-9 pm

Artist Reception - Saturday, September 11th 2-4pm with champagne & live music
